Analysis of an article or news story

Highlight or underline all the facts you can find in this report.

In a different colour, highlight or underline all the opinions.

Does the article try to show both sides of the story?

How reliable is the source? Who wrote the article?
Who might benefit from you believing this article?

What are you being asked to believe?

Write below any emotive words or terms used to persuade you.

Does the article give any evidence to support their claims?
The more extraordinary the claim, the greater the importance of evidence.